

I am against this petition as I value the independent ISP provider. I have consistently found their service to be much more efficient and readily available. I pay more because of this and am glad to do so. I think having independent ISP providers is important to those of us who feel we are not getting serviced by the larger providers.